

Biography of Don Van Veldhuizen

Don Van Veldhuizen is a Senior Technical Support Representative/Technical Training Manager for USA Bluebook. Don has worked in the water/wastewater field for over 20 years in various roles including operations, management, and consulting. He advises and trains numerous water and wastewater systems throughout the western United States and overseas.

Don holds certifications in both water and wastewater. He instructs from an operational standpoint utilizing a variety of instructional tools to encourage class participation, including hands-on applications if appropriate.